

LUTHERAN STUDENT SCHOLASTIC AND SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

Guidelines for the 2022-2023 Academic Year An amazing amount $15,000 in scholarship will be awarded to Lutheran students pursuing undergraduate degrees and seminarian and post-graduate students that will prepare them for ministry (such as pastor, pre-seminary and deaconess studies, deaconess, director of Christian education, or special-needs teacher), so they will have opportunity to share Jesus' love and the Gospel message with people living with intellectual and developmental disabilities

Scholarships will be awarded only twice to the same person.

Eligibility Criteria for undergraduate students:

- Be an active, communicant member of a Lutheran congregation.
- Be classified as a junior or senior at an accredited 4-year college or university.
- Have a minimum overall GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Have a career objective in the field of ministry with people living with intellectual and developmental disabilities, so opportunities to share the Gospel and Jesus' love with them, as wonderful relationship of shared faith are established.

Eligibility Criteria for seminarians and post-graduate students:

- Be an active, communicant member of a Lutheran congregation.
- Be a current college senior or a person accepted to begin seminary or post-graduate studies in the fall, or currently be classified as a first-year or second-year student at any Lutheran seminary. Students going on to their internship/vicarage year do not qualify.
- Have a commitment to inclusion of people living with intellectual and developmental disabilities within the local parish, giving them the opportunities for study of God's Word and serving with which all members are blessed.

Application Requirements:

1. Completed application form.
2. Documentation of 100 hours of service to people living with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities.
3. A 250–350-word essay on how the intended academic course of study will support their career in the field of intellectual and developmental disabilities ministry.
4. Four letters of recommendation (pastor, professor, and two unrelated others).
5. An official college/university transcript(s).
6. Submit pictures of applicant volunteering/interacting with people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. (required) Permission to use pictures will be required of each person in the picture.
