

LUTHERAN STUDENT SCHOLASTIC AND SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

Guidelines for the 2024-2025 Academic Year

The Auxiliary Scholarship Committee is offering up to $3,000 to Lutheran students pursuing undergraduate degrees and seminarian and post-graduate students that will prepare them for ministry (such as pastor, pre-seminary and deaconess studies, deaconess, director of Christian education, or special-needs teacher), so they will have an opportunity to share Jesus' love and the Gospel message with people living with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Scholarships will be awarded only twice to the same person.

Eligibility Criteria for undergraduate students:

- Be an active, communicant member of a Lutheran congregation.
- Be classified as a junior or senior at an accredited 4-year college or university.
- Have a minimum overall GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Have a career objective in the field of ministry with people living with intellectual and developmental disabilities, allowing opportunities to share the Gospel and Jesus' love with them and establish a wonderful relationship of shared faith.

Eligibility Criteria for seminarians and post-graduate students:

- Be an active, communicant member of a Lutheran congregation.
- Be a current college senior, a person accepted to begin seminary or post-graduate studies in the fall, or currently classified as a first-year or second-year student at any Lutheran seminary. Students going on to their internship/vicarage year do not qualify.
- Have a commitment to include people living with intellectual and developmental disabilities within the local parish, giving them the opportunity to study God's Word and serve.

Application Requirements:

1. Completed application form.
2. Documentation of 100 hours of service to people living with developmental disabilities.
3. A 250–350-word essay on how the intended academic course of study will support your career in the field of intellectual and developmental disabilities ministry.
4. Four letters of recommendation (pastor, professor, and two non-family members).
5. An official college/university transcript(s).
6. Pictures of applicant volunteering/interacting with people with developmental disabilities. (required)
Permission to use pictures will be required of each person in the picture.

Optional: Any other material that will assist the committee to better know the applicant.

Send the completed application in an envelope marked "Confidential."
